Dear Dean Lawson,

Thank you very much for your communication of the 10th instant regarding the laxity and negligence of one of our women members in checking absences from her classes. While I'm not happy to receive such criticism, it is a helpful thing and I've made it a point to call to the attention of our teachers the failure that happened last spring.

It is only by these check-ups that corrections may be made of faults of heretofore.

Assuring you of our desire for efficient cooperation I am

Sincerely yours,
