Dean Paul B. Lawson,
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences,
University of Kansas.

Dear Dean Lawson:

I played hockey at 5 o'clock and slipped out of the College faculty meeting because I had left my boys on the court at 4:20 and had no one to assist me. After 40 minutes the boys get restless, and I thought since there were administrative matters coming up in the meeting that you would excuse me.

I will endeavor to attend as many faculty meetings during basketball season as I can, but I am afraid if I miss too many practices that I will have to feed this little family of baby wolves on skimmed milk.

I trust you will excuse me today.

Sincerely yours,
