

I am not interested in the University of Dayton,
I assure you, but I thank you for sending me your ideas.
I think they are very clever.

I would not want to go to any school where people have a notion I might be commercializing athletics, although to some this statement may seem paradoxical, especially in the light of what I proposed.

With every good wish, I am

Very sincerely yours,
