Dear Doc,

Saw Bob last week. He was in the midst of his exams. Didn't have much time to talk. We had our mid-semester exams this week. A little worse than Mans. I had four ^{exams} yesterday. So far I've been lucky. My name hasn't appeared on the flunking list. There were about 200 of the 500 Navy V12 boys who were on that list. They had to be down in one subject and if they were down in three, their weekend liberty was taken away from them.

Have been playing a little basketball, will go out for the team if I have time.

Would give about anything to be
