Mr. C. H. Freeark,
The Terrace Hotel,
Green Mountain Falls,
Colorado.

Dear Mr. Freeark:

I told you when I saw you at the Lawrence Country Club that I would call you at your office. However, it was not necessary for me to call you to turn in your preliminary application for membership in Rotary.

When you return to Lawrence it will be ample time for me to follow through on this Rotary proposition. Will you kindly write me at your leisure and let me know when you expect to return from your vacation? I trust you are having an excellent one.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
