

January 16, 1943.

Mr. Bob Fisher,
16236 Cheyenne,
Detroit, Michigan.

Dear Bob:

Thanks for your swell letter of the 10th instant. I have been wanting to write you ever since I got back, but it seems as if we have had a game about every other night and we have had a tough time making ends meet.

I am going to write you a little later a much longer letter but I want you to know that you were swell to entertain us as you did. This is just a thank you note. I am going to write Mrs. Fisher and tell her how much I enjoyed her and your hospitality and the visit with your fine son. It was really a great experience and I shall never forget it.

Our boys, of course, did much better than I expected, and that makes it a pleasant reverie.

Until I write you further, I am

Sincerely yours,
