We hope that if alumni who get these bulletins know of any K. U. people up here whose names we do not have that they will drop a card with the information to your alumni secretary.

Your 1942 officers hope you have enjoyed these news bulletins on K. U. folks in Detroit area. While we were not able to get in touch with every alumnus in our group we did get a few lines on most. We would like to express our thanks here to those who have helped us. And we would like to observe that we believe that the amount of achievement our alumni up here have attained, as revealed in the news items we have given you, can hardly be matched by the alumni from any other school. It is something K.U. can be proud of.

Your 1942 officers,

Robert R. Fisher, e'11,	President
Jack Kincaid, c'27,	Vice-President
Constance Ingalls Barnes, c'25	Secretary
Jack Laffer, c'39,	Treasurer.
