Dear Max:

I didn't know until just recently that you had become a member of the big league announcers. Mrs. Allen heard your voice and told me about it. Your diction is excellent and your voice is very pleasing to hear.

This is just a note of congratulation. I am glad to see you make such rapid progress toward success that we knew you were destined for.

We are very proud of these young people who do not wait for their parents to put them in a soft spot, but work their own way ahead. I know that you are a source of great satisfaction to your parents, and we who are standing on the sidelines are also very proud of you.

With best wishes for your success and happiness, I am

Very sincerely yours,
