Dear Dr. Allen:

I am enclosing a copy of the poem that I used at Toledo last Friday night in accordance with your request.

May I say that I certainly enjoyed meeting you and visiting even the small amount of time that was possible. The thoughts which you presented to the group were very much worth-while and I concur in them one hundred percent.

I hope that some time we may have the opportunity of being together again and renewing our acquaintance.

Yours truly,

C. E. Forsythe
