Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Dr. Allen:

Wish to apologize for being so late in complimenting you on your excellent management of the N.C.A.A. festivities and also want to thank you for the excellent seats for Saturday night. They were certainly a big improvement over what I had purchased.

Naturally we were all a little disappointed in the game but as you were quoted in last night's Star, Indiana was hot and there is nothing that can be done about a good team that is hot and they certainly were a good team. Perhaps if you can develop a couple of good guards next season we will get another crack at them.

The entire evening's entertainment was indeed outstanding and you might tell Professor Wiley that several music lovers remarked that he has the best college band that they ever heard. This certainly goes for me and I am a much better judge of music than I am of basketball.

I know you are busy and do not ask that you take time to answer this letter. Simply wanted to express my thanks.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'W. W. Fuller'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
