Dear Dean Swarthout,

I've had some correspondence with Ralph Cannon of Esquire. He has asked me to do a basketball article for him and in the progress of our correspondence I learned that he was a Millikin man and a baseball player. Naturally, it followed that I told him about your and my game of golf and suggested that he doubtless knew you. He replied as follows, "Believe it or not, I used to play in the orchestra (pretty ineptly) at Millikin under Mr. Swarthout. They are all very fine people. Remember me to him the next time you see him. He will remember me for being always slightly off in pitch on the clarinet."

Since my memory is so treacherous, I'm resorting to the typewriter to convey his good thoughts to you.

Sincerely,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach
