I do not know the answers and have no program to offer you or to urge upon you.

These are the sort of questions, the answers to which are the prerogative of the Faculty, not the administrator. Engaged in such a task, these lean war years may be the most fruitful in the entire history of the School of Education.
