CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

A detailed statement of the current requirements of the State Board of Education of Kansas for its teaching certificates will be found in Section I of the catalogue. Persons wishing to secure licenses to teach in states other than Kansas are advised to secure from the secretary of the board of education of the state in which they wish to teach a detailed statement of the requirements of that state, and to govern themselves accordingly in their preparation. The department will be glad to cooperate, but can assume no responsibility other than that of counseling the student in his election of courses.

GRADUATE STUDY IN EDUCATION

The University offers courses leading to the following graduate degrees in Education:

I. The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy. This degree is awarded to outstanding students who have completed not less than three full years of graduate study and research, and who have met the specific requirements set by the graduate faculty for this degree. For details regarding this degree candidates are referred to Section I of the catalogue.

II. The Degree of Doctor of Education. This degree is the professional doctor's degree in the field of Education, and either it or the degree of Doctor of Philosophy is rapidly becoming a prerequisite to candidacy for positions of importance in larger school systems. For details regarding this degree, candidates are invited to correspond with the dean of the School of Education. The detailed requirements will be found in Section I of the catalogue.

III. The Masters' Degrees. These are three in number: Master of Arts, Master of Science in Education, and Master of Education. Candidates holding the degree of A. B. or B. S. are eligible to the degree of A. M. Candidates who hold the degree of B. S. in Education are eligible to the professional degree of M. S. in Education. The degree of Master of Education is open to the holder of any acceptable baccalaureate degree who has met the prerequisites to graduate study in Education. A master's degree is currently required of all candidates for administrative or other responsible positions either by law, local stipulation, or present practice.

Prerequisites to Graduate Study in Education

1. Candidates for graduate degrees must have earned an acceptable baccalaureate degree, and must --
2. Present a transcript showing the completion of not less than fifteen hours of undergraduate courses in Education, over and above general psychology.
3. In addition to the above requirements, applicants for the degree of Doctor of Education must show that they have had not less than three full years of satisfactory experience in the practice of Education.
