

Shirley Shupe was in Monday and said that Dr. Brown (at the student hospital) had told her not to take physical education. Her blood pressure was the lowest it has been for some time when she was in the hospital a week ago. She expects to go again in a few days.

There is nothing else she would like to major in, and does not want to give up physical education.

conf