NOTE ESPECIALLY THE MEETINGS AT WHICH ATTENDANCE IS REQUIRED OF
ALL ENTERING FRESHMEN

General Information

The information included in this folder has been compiled to aid new students, particularly Freshmen, in getting the best start possible at the University.

Please bear in mind that your attendance is required at (1) the psychological examination, (2) the physical examination, (3) the Monday morning meeting of new students by Schools (except for students in the School of Fine Arts), (4) the convocations on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and (5) the series of lectures for Freshmen.

At the psychological examination you will be given an attendance card, which will be punched to record your attendance at the required meetings. Later, separate cards will be used to record your attendance at the lectures for Freshmen.

(a) As just stated, the psychological examination is required of all new students. No student who has not
