

September 14, 1937.

Dr. John A. Billingsley,
Huron Building,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Dr. Billingsley:

Frank Buck came in a few moments ago, and I am greatly discouraged. He thought he was too small to play basketball. He wanted a job and I hadn't heard anything about the situation beforehand and did not know that he desired a job.

Frank said that you told him to see Ad Lindsey or me.

Doctor, I want to help the boy, and I am afraid unless somebody pays more attention to him he is going to feel like nobody cares much about him.

I talked to young Sullivan after I talked to Frank, and told him to raise his morale and have somebody do something for him. Of course, I am in position to help him out with jobs in only a very limited way, and that is why I am writing you to get the full information.

I thought it better not to press the case with him, but would like you to write me right away and let me know what information you have. I would appreciate hearing from you at the earliest possible date.

With best wishes to you and your lovely family, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.