

September 22, 1937.

Mr. Lewis H. Brotherton,
2032 N. 32nd Street,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Friend Brotherton:

I want you to know how very much I appreciate the time you gave me over the phone the other day in behalf of Jack Buckman's brother. I know that you have more things than you can handily do, but so many of the Kansas City, Kansas people were interested in Jack Buckman that I wanted to help out if I could.

I find that Jack Buckman's brother's name is Paul, that he is about 25 years of age, and I understand that he is a fireman but now out of employment. The entire Buckman family is very happy since Jack made his decision to enroll at Kansas and not go to George Washington University.

Jack was taken ill yesterday, apparently with summer flu, and is now over at the University hospital. I am very sorry of this because that will delay him in his getting a running start on his school work. He has a reputation of being an especially fine athlete but only fair as a student, and I was hoping that he would be able to start from the beginning.

Jack's two brothers are going to make him a small monthly loan to help him out, and for that reason I was especially interested in seeing if I could be of any service to Paul in obtaining a job for him. I know that you will understand my attitude and I thought if at all possible you could make some contacts that might be helpful to him, and would, in turn, be helpful to Jack and to the University.