Mr. Art Edson,
Associated Press,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Art:

I have discontinued sending you the Jayhawk Rebounds for the reason that you are somewhat like Westbrook Pegler, only not as good in any line as he is. Your article: "Sample: Every month or so, F. C. 'Phog' Allen, Kansas basketball coach, composes his 'Jayhawk Rebounds'. They're like the great Phog himself, gabby, platitudinous -- and check 'full of news.'"

I wrote those letters for the boys and thought that although you were not human at times you could have been human enough to reflect the better things in the Rebounds. But I see you just haven't got it.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
