

the captain (Wear), is a senior.

The star of the team is a fellow you couldn't go wrong on, Doc. He averaged $16\frac{3}{5}$ points a game for the season and two fouls. His father died the night they won the regional tournament at Hutchinson and he scored 29 points in two games at Topeka the next weekend.

His name is Harold England. He's only a junior this year. The drawback, of course, is that he would have trouble going to college financially, especially with his dad gone. As I remember, however, his grandmother in Burton is fairly well-to-do (a little oil). At any rate, it wouldn't hurt to work on him a little for things may change for the better by the time he graduates.

Adolph Rupp almost gave Halstead an all-championship year with his strong Kentucky crew this season.

Thanks ever so much for keeping those Rebounds coming. It's just like a day back at school. Moving around as much as we do, it helps chances for re-unions.

As ever,

Chuck
