P.S. I went out to the University today. It brought back memories of 1937. The only college football game I ever played was on the field here. We lost by a score of 7-0 but as long as I live I'll never forget that day. It was so hot; the men so listless; and Arizona needed a win. (Of course K.U. could have used one too.)

I even went so far as to look on the field to see if it ever got rolled out again. Why? because at that time A.U. had a fullback mentioned for All-American and it seems as though everytime A.U. ran with the ball it was towards me. I can't ever remember being on my back so much & so often as that day. That fullback drove <sup>me</sup> into the ground so hard at times I thought I needed a crane to get me out. Needless to say, it was pleasant to say "I played on that field for K.U. in 1937." Even though I was a punk sub.

I haven't heard a word about K.U. but give my regards to Schuake and especially to "Old Dean." I know four lads that think Dean tops - Harp, Pope, Bruce & myself. — Doc, I'd give a millim for a reunion of the 1940 club if I could. Wouldn't it be grand when this is over? Those master words of yours
