

February 12, 1942.

Mr. Maurice L. Breidenthal,
Security National Bank,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Maurice:

Al Wellhausen has never paid me the money he borrowed several years ago, and I am getting tired of waiting for it. I would appreciate it if you would notify him that it will be necessary to garnishee his wages or for the bank to sue to collect this money.

He is working for the Muehlebach Brewery. His wife, I understand, is taking the necessary steps for a divorce.

I am tired of fooling along with this debt, and shall appreciate anything you can do toward collecting it.

Very sincerely yours,
