

November 29, 1941.

Mr. Howard Engleman,
Phillips Petroleum Co.,
Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Dear Howard:

I enjoyed receiving your "Bill's Gay" postcard from New York. I'll bet you got a surprise, did you not, when you saw Bob and Eleanor, because doubtless Mrs. Allen was there at that time, or else on her way. She is attending the Army-Navy game today with the youngsters. I got four tickets, hoping that I could attend, but found that it was impossible. But I know they will be having a swell time.

I am glad that you are happy and having a good time. Will you also give my kind regards to your good coach and Hank Luisetti and all the boys on your team? You have a great bunch of chaps and I am wishing you every happy return.

I am sending your card to Mrs. Allen, as I am writing her today. She always loved you, Howard, and I know how interested she will be in hearing from you.

Old "Ogu-Mogu" is quite a student, and Eleanor is majoring in psychology. Look out there, boy, she will figure out the workings of your mind! But when she does it she will be having a good time, I'll bet.

I am writing you at Bartlesville, hoping that this will head you off. You know Connie Mack used to say, "The way to head off Ty Cobb is to throw one base ahead of him." Well, that is what I am doing regarding Howard Engleman.

My kindest regards to my good friends - Boots Adams, Paul Endacott, Alexander, Pralle, and a host of other good Jay-hawkers with a fine outfit.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.

FCA:AH