

Sat. Dear Friend, Congratulations on the splendid Victory of your team last night. "What a game "What a game," and many ringing of applause when the final gun went off. "Hysteria" of some temporary "Dinomania," took possession of many of the Fans. Few slept much last night after that excitement They stopped in & grabbed it. Truly F. Endcott
