My dear Dr. Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter of October 27 concerning excess material on the basketball films.

Mr. Edwards happens to be away from the office this week, but I shall take it up with him immediately upon his return, and if we can supply you with the desired scene, we shall, of course, be glad to do so.

If we were to include it in our future sales of the film, it would involve, I judge, the re-writing and re-printing of the guide covering the film -- which would be a considerable expense, and unless the matter is of supreme importance, I should not care to make the change.

I think that none of the excess material was destroyed, and I hope we may be able to supply you with it.

Yours very truly,

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY
