Arkansas City, Kansas.

Dear Mrs. Engleman:

Your lovely letter came this morning, and Howard and I are clicking one hundred per cent. As I told you, I took Howard to see Dr. Peete last Saturday and they had a very fine visit. I think it was a great privilege for Howard to meet such an outstanding man on such a friendly basis. Dr. Peete thinks Howard is one of the most wonderful chaps in the country.

It was nice of you to write as you did, and I do appreciate your kind words. It is always a source of inspiration to many of us to receive the compliments the like of which you sent me. You can always count on my friendly support and cooperation with Howard.

Yesterday I scrimmaged Howard, and he is doing fine. His knee bothers him very little.

I am enclosing a copy of a note I have just written Howard, and am also sending you a copy of the treatise that I am sending him. I thought you would be interested in this.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,
