

ARTICLE VIII

MOVING PICTURE FILMS

SECTION 1. Unedited films are to be used freely by individual schools but only for the purpose of coaching and instructing football squads.

SECTION 2. These films should not be exhibited to the general public unless they have been edited in such a way as not to reflect on the officiating.

SECTION 3. Exhibitions of motion pictures of games should be arranged at the pre-season officials' training school.

ARTICLE IX

CODE OF ETHICS

SECTION 1. Fully realizing that courageous and fearless officiating is unattainable under open criticism, the only possible effect of which is to destroy public confidence, the following principles as a Code of Ethics that could be adopted.

SECTION 2. It shall be considered unethical for a coach, or other representative of an Institution, to discuss his opponents' play or players in any game with officials who will serve or are serving that game.

SECTION 3. It shall be considered unethical for a coach, or other representative of an Institution, to evidence any criticism of officials, either between the halves, during or immediately after a game.

SECTION 4. It shall be considered unethical for a coach, or other representative of an Institution, to use, or to condone in any way, the use of the Press for any criticism of officiating.

SECTION 5. It shall be considered unethical for either a coach, or an official, to draw the other into conversation concerning the game. This shall apply before, during, and after the game.

SECTION 6. It shall be considered unethical for an official to furnish the Press, either directly or indirectly, any interviews or stories on games in which he worked, or on any game whether or not he worked in it.

SECTION 7. It shall be considered unethical for an official to comment on the work of a fellow official, except in his reports to the office of the Commissioner.

SECTION 8. It shall be considered unethical for an official to discuss decisions made in a game with anyone, except with his fellow officials or the Commissioner.

NOTE: (a) Coaches, or other representatives of an Institution, are urged to file any complaint or criticism of officials or officiating with the Commissioner, the appointed agency for constructive or remedial action in such matters.
