Austin, Texas.

Dear Clyde:

I dislike to bother you regarding this situation, but I will appreciate any cooperation you can give me.

When Buren Edwards, a boy from your Texas country, was sent up here by either Kiwanis, Rotary or some classification club, they paid his tuition. Some of the club members wrote me and told me what a fine track and basketball star the boy was.

Some time along the year when the boy needed some money and there was no fund here to loan him, he came to me. He borrowed $35.00. I loaned it to him from my own personal account. He vowed, of course, that he would pay me, and I know he will. I am wondering where Buren is.

Would ask the alumni office there to give me his address? I assure you I will not embarrass him, but I do believe he will want to pay his bill. Since I am no banker I want no interest, but would like to have the principal. I will appreciate your cooperation.

Please believe me when I wish you the very best in this life.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,
