

December 31, 1937.

Mr. Fred Ellsworth, Secretary,
Alumni Association,
University of Kansas.

Dear Mr. Ellsworth:

In regard to the entertainment between halves of the basketball game Tuesday evening, January 4, we are counting on Ray Wright to lead the song, "Our Team", and Criss Simpson to play the organ.

These people may get passes to the game by calling at the Athletic Office. Mr. Falkenstein says if they wish to take their wives he will be glad to give them tickets.

I am having the song mimeographed, and these sheets will be distributed with the programs as the people come in the auditorium.

We shall make arrangements for a microphone with a long cord on the floor, so that Ray can begin his part of the program immediately after the first half of the game, while the juggler is "warming up".

If you have any other suggestions, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

H

Secretary to Dr. Allen.
