

Ark. City Kans.
May 18th 1938.

Dear Mr. Allen,

I regret very much that I have been unable to visit Howard during his freshman year at the University. He has been very interested and happy in his work there.

Last Fall I questioned the wisdom of choosing such an over crowded school. And with our limited finances I was afraid that either his health or grades or activities would suffer. But such has not been the case. I can truly say I have not once been sorry for our decision, and