Dear Dr. Boughton:

I am indebted to you for writing regarding Mr. W. J. McMahon of Wilson and Company, of Kansas City, Kansas. Congratulations on landing Wilson and Company! That really is an achievement. I think the foot powder idea is the specific thing for athlete's foot prevention.

I blush when I mention the fact that my shaving cream supply is getting low. Frankly, I would like to buy a jar of it - a large jar - rather than to have you give it to me. I am so pleased with it that I never think of buying anything else, so sometime when it is convenient for you and you are coming through Lawrence, I would appreciate it if you would leave me a jar together with your bill.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
