

Around it almost makes you dizzy.
You can tell Henry Shenk that the place to get some good football players is around Times Square - at any time. About midnight Saturday is the best, tho. I found out I'm going to have to get in better condition for the next visit.

Was certainly glad to read about John (Pflash) Pfitch in your Belmont letter. I imagine he is in the thick of the invasion by now. Lucy and I both say a silent prayer for him and the rest of the allies every day.

Things are going along about the same here. Life is plenty tough
