Dear Mr. Allen:

I haven't forgotten the request for information relative to a physical education man. I find that the men in this field with doctor's degrees are in about the same proportion as an honest man in a bunch of thieves. I do not know of any man in the high schools of this state who is in the physical education department and who has a doctors degree. There are several who are working toward a doctors degree but in most cases this work is being done on the installment plan during summer and it takes a considerable length of time to put in the required time when this plan is in use.

One man who has been active in high school and teacher college physical education is Vincent DiGiovanni. He has been connected with the Southern State Teachers College at Carbondale, Illinois, but took a leave of absence this year to secure a doctors degree at Columbia. As far as I know, he will have this degree before the beginning of next school year. He is an energetic young chap and is interested in research work of all kinds. I think ^{will} he become prominent in his field. If you should care to write him, he may be reached at 111-09 76 Rd., Forest Hills, New York.

Mr. Dudley DeGroot,

Dear Dudley:

While I was in San Francisco I had expected to have a conference with you concerning your brother, Edward. I talked to John Bunn about him and John recommended him very highly. He told me that Edward was teaching at Kamehameha Boys School in Honolulu, T. H., and he was not sure whether he would be interested in a position at the University of Kansas.

I have just received from Miss Ruth Tracksel, of the Appointment Service at Stanford, Edward's records and recommendations as filed in that office.

We have a position open here in the Department of Physical Education at a salary of $2400.00 for 9½ months. Our department offers a B. S. degree in the School of Education with a major in physical Education. We are also offering graduate work with a major in physical education. Our graduate work started last summer.

I am writing you confidentially to see if you think your brother would be interested in this position. I recognize that the Plains States do not offer as lucrative a salary as the Coast schools. I would like to get your viewpoint regarding the possibility of his being interested in this position before going further.

I have looked over his credentials and I am very sure that he would fit very nicely in our scheme of things.

It was good to see you in San Francisco and have a visit with you.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,

Dear Mr. DeGroot:

I am very happy to have your letter of the 15th instant. I find that I am unable to see the Chancellor this morning on account of his meeting with the Board of Regents. I am leaving this afternoon for a commencement address in northern Kansas, and from there I go on to Ames, Iowa, for our Big Six Conference track and field meet. I will not return until Monday morning.

I endeavored to see the Chancellor this morning so that I might communicate with you regarding the offer to Burt for the position in our department. It is always customary for the Chancellor to handle the final details. I have an appointment Monday morning with the Chancellor and I am very sure that you will hear in a very short time.

In the past two days I have had interviews with our dean of the School of Education, dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the dean of the Graduate School, as well as with the Chancellor, and I am of the pretty definite opinion that things are shaped up to the point now whereby we can get action very soon. You may rest assured that this will have my very prompt attention.

With all good wishes, I am

Very cordially yours,

Dear Mr. DeGroot:

I am very sorry for the delay in not writing you sooner, but Chancellor Lindley, who is retiring this year, has been on many speaking engagements and I have not had an opportunity to interview him until this morning.

As you know, the Chancellor makes the final negotiations in all these matters. I am hoping to see him again Monday, and will advise you just as soon as possible.

Deans Schwegler, Stouffer and Lawson have approved credentials and qualifications of Burt DeGroot. Chancellor Lindley ~~wire~~ cabled Colonel Adna Clarke, Honolulu and received this unsatisfactory reply. "Character and standing DeGroot excellent. Has not been here long enough to form adequate estimate qualifications teacher or coach." I will need strong testimonial from you and Dr. Storey to offset this situation in Chancellor's mind. Can you both conscientiously wire me strong recommendation at my expense. Have conferred with both Dudley and Burt. Both highly favorable to acceptance of position here. Regards.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeated message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeated-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

MEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Dr. F.C. Allen
Director of Physical Education
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Dr. Allen:

Your letter of April 27 has been read with considerable interest. I am very happy to know that you are seriously considering my younger brother, Burt, for the vacancy which you have at the University of Kansas.

In a recent chat with John Bunn, I learned something of the details of the position, and, although I may exemplify too much brotherly love, I am inclined to believe that Burt would fill the vacancy most satisfactorily. He is really an awfully fine kid. Perhaps his greatest fault is over-conscientiousness, if there can be such a thing. He has a very lovely wife, and I am sure they would make a welcome addition to your department.

I have just dispatched a letter to Burt, encouraging him to give a serious consideration to your vacancy. From a financial standpoint, it would mean the sacrifice of approximately a thousand dollars annually, in the aggregate. In exchange, I feel that the opportunity of working under your fine leadership, in the outstanding program which you have developed, would be well worth this temporary setback. In the long run, it appears to me, that he would probably be well compensated for the temporary loss.

In view of the fact that it is rather a slow and difficult process for you to discuss the matter with him, I trust you will see fit to use me freely as an intermediary. I will be only too glad to handle the expense involved in contacting Burt by wire, in the event you are anxious to make an early decision.

Following my short acquaintance with you in San Francisco, may I say, in all sincerity, that this would appear to me to be an unusually fine opportunity for the kid brother, and I sincerely hope that you decide to offer him the position and that, in turn, he decides to accept.

With kindest, personal wishes, I am

Dr. Forrest C. Allen
Director of Physical Education
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Dr. Allen:

Thank you very much for offering me the position in your department at the University of Kansas. I have ~~cabled~~ my acceptance to Dr. Lindley, pending further information concerning the position.

I am quite anxious to know more about the specific details and duties of the position at present and also about the possibilities for future advancement before I finally sever all connections here at Kamehameha. I would greatly appreciate a reply at your earliest convenience, therefore, concerning the following points:

1. Specifically, what courses would I teach and what would be the general content of those courses?
2. What are the opportunities of advancement from this particular position at the University of Kansas, both from a professional and economic standpoint? The opportunity of working under you in your department is the chief reason I would accept the position, of course, for that very fact assures professional growth. Will there be opportunity for advanced study and credit during the school year at Kansas, or will my program be too full for that?
3. In that I would suffer a considerable loss financially by leaving here, I am definitely interested in the possible salary raise that might be expected at Kansas for the completion of a satisfactory year's work. Is there a salary schedule in operation, or what is the basis for economic advancement?
4. When does school begin in September, 1939, and when would I be expected to report? I would want to arrive before school opens to allow time to become oriented in the job and to find a furnished apartment. Another problem is that boat traffic is quite heavy this summer and reservations must be made a month or more in advance.

Thank you again for extending me the opportunity of working in your department.

Yours sincerely,

E. B. De Groot Jr.

June 10, 1939.

Mr. E. B. DeGroot, Jr.,
Kamehameha School for Boys,
Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dear Burt:

I am answering your favor of June 3rd at once and sending it by Clipper mail. I have been waiting for a spare moment until examinations were out of the way so that I could write you more fully regarding the University of Kansas and her environments.

As you doubtless know, the City of Lawrence and the University were founded by New Englanders. Amos Lawrence, of Boston, Mass., for whom Lawrence was named, ex-Governor Robinson, for whom our gymnasium was named, Horace Greeley, who wrote for the New York Tribune, were early Massachusetts pioneers who passed through Lawrence on their way to the gold hunt in California in '49. These men saw the possibilities of having Kansas as a free state prior to the Civil War. Horace Greeley stopped on Mt. Oread and wrote back to the New Yorkers that this hill should some time be adorned with a college.

When I have more time I want to write you at length giving you some information as to the wealth of tradition that Kansas holds. This town was sacked and burned by Quantrill's guerillas, a group of Missouri border ruffians, on August 15, 1863. The Missourians claimed that this was a reprisal for what the Kansas people did under General Order No. 11, a Union order causing the Missourians in Kansas City and eastern Jackson County to abdicate and declare their allegiance to the governor. The Missourians claimed that the Kansans seized upon this general order to commit depredations over Missouri.

Therefore, the Kansas-Missouri rivalry takes on something even more traditionally exciting than the Stanford-California Big Game. One football coach who previously coached here at Kansas and was the son of a pioneer, stood up at a gathering and said, "I can tell you that my grandfather used to shoot at these fellows over there". So you can imagine that in the early days the rivalry must have been intense. This game still carries with it a tremendous emotional appeal. There is a book called "Order Number Eleven" written by Mrs. Wallace. I hope that your library or some library that you have access to affords you an opportunity to read it. It will give you the Missouri angle to the situation and when you come to Lawrence you will have plenty of opportunity to speak to the old timers who will tell you of the atrocities of the Quantrill raid.

But Lawrence is a typical New England settlement. President Conant of Harvard University will deliver the commencement address this year, and our chancellor-elect Deane Malott, before coming here, was assistant dean of the School of Business at Harvard.

Answering your questions numerically, I would desire a little additional time before shaping up all of your courses. I had in mind that you would teach History and Principles of Physical Education, a three-hour course. You are well enough acquainted with that course, I am sure, to know the general content. I have also had in mind that you would be the assistant director of intramural athletics, assisting Dr. E. R. Elbel, who has that in charge. As your proficiency increases we are hoping that next year you may take over the management of intramural athletics. In addition, I have intended that you should teach Track and Field, a two-hour course. I am hoping that you are in position to teach Kinesiology. If you are not, I wish you would write me and I will teach the course until you are in position to offer it. In this institution 124 hours are required for graduation, four hours of which may be physical education. These service courses, as we call them, will also be included in your course. Other courses will be added as we make progressive adjustment.

Answering your second question regarding the opportunities for advancement, both from a professional and economic standpoint, I might say that only two years ago we established a 120-hour curriculum in undergraduate Physical Education in the School of Education, and during this past year we have been offering graduate work toward a combined master's degree in Physical Education and Education. We believe that we are going forward rapidly but securely, and I might add that you have the same opportunity to advance that the rest of us have.

From an economic standpoint, we have a budget committee which is comprised of the executive secretary to the chancellor, the dean of the Graduate School, the dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the dean of the School of Business, who pass upon the salary question. The dean of the school in which the individual is located also sits in with this budget committee. The head of the department is called before this committee and asked to make recommendations. The final authority resides in the chancellor after the budget committee has made their recommendations. I would say that a young man of your possibilities and growth would have an excellent opportunity to advance. You appreciate, of course, that I am powerless to make any financial commitments for the future. That is the province of the bodies just outlined. There is no salary schedule in operation at the University of Kansas.

There will be opportunity for advanced study and credit during the school year, but I am wondering if you would not want to orient yourself first before you take on additional academic work. The personnel will be entirely new to you and I rather have the feeling that some of these adjustments would necessarily draw upon your sources of energy and time. I am sending you an excerpt from our general information regarding the Graduate School. This will guide you in your wishes.

School opens at the University of Kansas on Saturday, September 16. This is the day for psychological examinations, physical examinations and registration.

Since you desire to be here early, I would be very happy to be of any benefit to you in endeavoring to find a furnished apartment for you. Of course, I would scan the town with a desire to get the best possible location for you. The latter part of August and September are generally warm here in Lawrence, but I agree with you that it would be well to find an apartment at your early convenience. Lawrence has a population of about 16,000 and the more choice apartments are generally taken up much before the time school opens. If you would write me regarding your desires it would be a great pleasure for me to be of service.

I feel very certain that you will like the University of Kansas, and I am equally certain from all that I have learned about you from Coach Ham and your other friends that we will be delighted to have you here.

Assuring you of our hearty cooperation and trusting to receive a definite confirmation at your early convenience, I am

Very sincerely yours,
