Dec. ~~30~~ 29 - Tues.

Was called at nine. Ate breakfast in Hotel cafe and then with the rest of the boys went down to Rocher Fellow Center. We were going to the Radio City Music Hall, but there was such a <sup>line</sup> crowd we didn't have <sup>time</sup> to wait, so we started over to the broadcasting building to take a tour of the broadcasting system. On the way we looked down into the promenade between the two buildings and saw people <sup>ice</sup> skating on a rink. In the summer time this place is a beautiful cafe.

When we arrived to where we were going to take the tour, we first ~~at~~ went into a wonderful museum. In there we saw and English Spitfire, a German Messerschmitt, and many other fighting weapons of the war besides non war things, which were very interesting. After spending much time in there we went on the sight seeing tour. On this tour we saw the air cleaning system, the television sets, the sound effect system, the broadcasting
