

studios, and other interesting features of the National and blue network. In fact I was accused of getting up and singing a solo in the 90's new Gay 90's night club the night before, by a sight seeing man from Iowa.

At two we went back to the Hotel, ate, and went down to Penns. station to take the train to Philadelphia. After riding for 2 hours, in which time most of us slept, we pulled into Philadelphia and took a taxi to the Philadelphian Hotel, where Doc. gave us 75¢ to eat dinner on. After eating and fooling around a bit we went to bed, plenty tired.
