

Herman Sanneman

After dinner we practiced at the Intramural Building and ironed out some of the kinks of the long ride.

Bob Allen and I had a most enjoyable chat with barbers while they sliced us up a bit, but the chat proved most expensive also. Bob had to pay the most outrageous sum of twenty-five cents for a small portion of hair juice--guess we "Kansans" looked easy!!!!

After dinner at the cafeteria, some of us took in the movies while others stayed in and finished their correspondence. The lights were out at 9:30 p. m., and all were in bed.

I can't hope to mention how thankful I am to be a member of such a fine group of boys and ^{have} ~~had~~ such a fine coach. The boys show real cooperation at team work off the court as well as on the court--it all goes to make the trip more successful and enjoyable.

Tomorrow we will see Niagara Falls and many other points of interest for everyone.
