

Solly

We left Ann Arbor at 7:01 a. m. on the train for Niagara Falls. During our short ride through Canadian territory we noticed many soldiers of the Royal forces and I made the acquaintance of a Mr. John Hopkins who was in the C. O. T. C. and from whom I learned many things concerning the Canadian preparation.

We arrived at Niagara about 2:00 p. m., and the first thing of interest which we saw was a drunk who really gave us a lesson on lots of reasons not to drink.

We ate lunch at the Louis Cafe and then walked to the Falls. In a moment one realizes why Niagara Falls is called one of the Seven Great Wonders of the World. It is truly a beautiful and breath-taking sight. Upon seeing anything so naturally great one feels that God himself must surely be standing near by.

We stayed at the Falls until 8:00 p. m. when the colored lights are turned upon the mist and falling waters. After a last glance at the Falls we hurried back to the station where we boarded the pullman which is to give us an all night ride across the state of New York.

After a very poor night spent on the train we arrived at West Point, N. Y., where we visited the academy and also worked out before leaving for New York City. We arrived in New York City about 5:30 p. m. after riding a ferry across the Hudson River. After eating we went to Madison Square Garden and put on an exhibition practice between halves of the City College - Santa Clara game.

We slept rather late this morning and practiced about noon at the "Y." In the afternoon all except Bob Allen, who has a colk, of us went on a sight-seeing tour which really took in the famous spots of the city. We also got to
