

Howard Engleman

December 29, 1940

Four boys, Sanneman, Hall, Hogben, and myself arose at 7:30 to accompany Brad Thompson, former Washburn star athlete who is the husband of one of the former Dodge glamour girls of Kansas University. Brad took us all over the city and showed us many sights we had missed on our bus tour two days previously.

Staten Island, Central Park, Fifth Avenus, and Harlem were visited. Churches and homes of notables were also seen.

We left New York at 4:00 on the Pennsylvania R. R. en route to our retreat in Swarthmore, Pa. Located just outside Philadelphia we stayed at the quaint Shath Haven Inn which has been a landmark of hospitality for generations. We practiced at the Swarthmore College Field House where we had the run of the place. We retired early.