

T. P. Hunter

January 3

We were called by trainer Nesmith at 8:00 o'clock.

We rushed down to the Allerton dining room and had a quick breakfast cafeteria style.

At 9:05 "Doc" sprang out of the hotel elevator and said "All right, boys, we are ready." We caught taxi cabs and told them to hurry to the Dearborn Street station. Luckily everybody made the train and we were soon on our way home, ending a very pleasant sight-seeing and basketball tour, and Christmas vacation trip. I believe that everyone is going to survive o. k. and be ready for practice when we get home tonight.

Finis