University of Kansas Golfer:

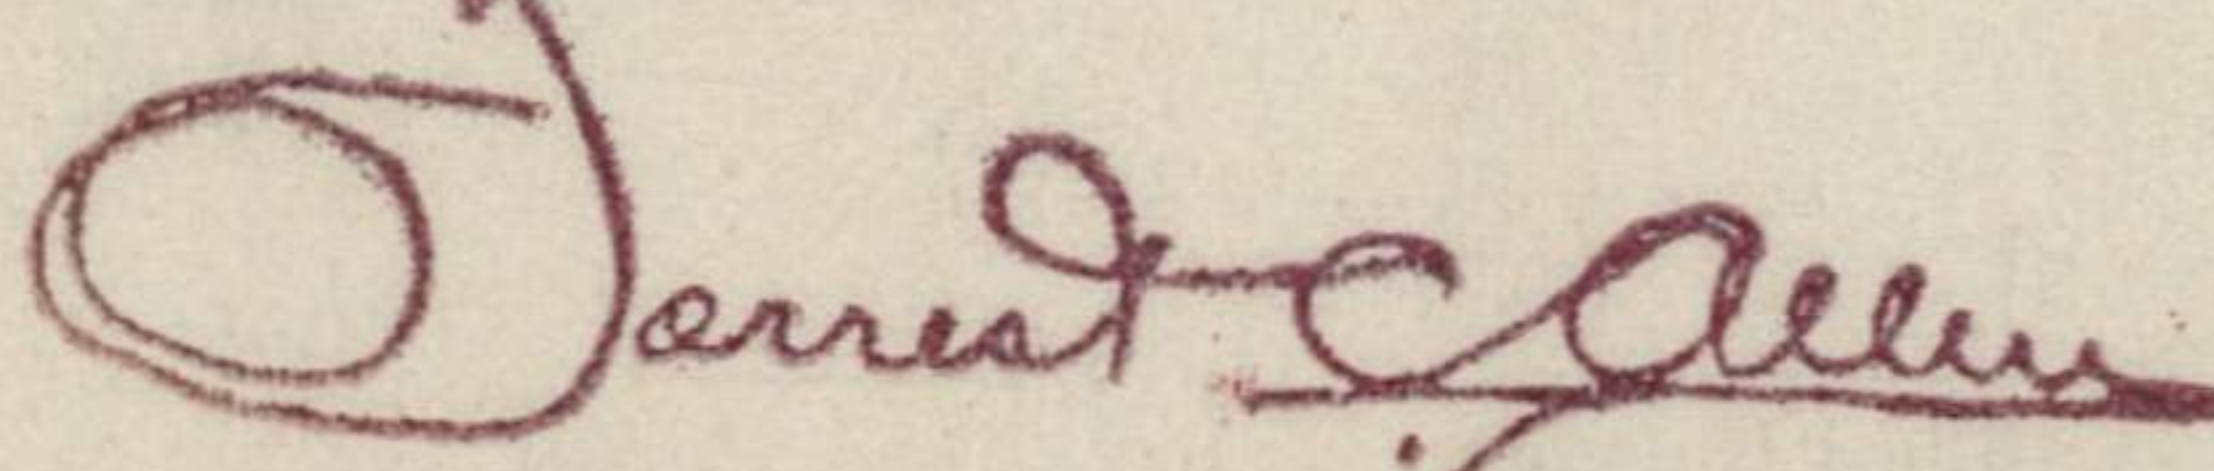

On June 11 to 15 The Lawrence Country Club will be the spot where all golfers will congregate for the Kansas Amateur Golf Association Tournament. A. 1941 Kansas Golf Champion will be crowned and we cordially invite all amateur university golfers to participate in this event.

The Lawrence Country Club makes this attractive offer: permission to use the golf course from this date to June 15 for the sum of $10.00 which sum also gives you the opportunity to participate in the State Tournament without the extra registration fee of $3.00; and permitting you to play under the name of The Lawrence Country Club, or your home town club, if they are members of the association. This $10.00 fee includes a barbecue, banquet and other social features throughout the tournament. Below is the schedule:
