

September 7, 1937.

Mr. J. F. Staley,
Superintendent of School,
Nelson, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Staley:

Yes, indeed, I was happy to receive your letter of the 29th ultimo, and I assure you it was a pleasure to hear from you. I am writing my publisher, the Smith-Grievess Publishing Company, 17th and Washington, Kansas City, Mo., asking that they communicate with you and send you a copy of the book, as you desire.

It is always a pleasure to hear from former students and alumni of C.M.S.T.C. In trying to recall the fellow who struck me out in one of the faculty games I found that I had great difficulty in placing you from that particular standpoint, because I believe I struck out most of the times I got up to bat.

Seriously, I do remember you, and I trust that you will have splendid success. I trust that the book will be of some benefit to you and that you have a championship team this year.

With every good wish, I am

Cordially yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.
