Dear Roy:

I am returning the post card from Mr. H. N. McElroy which was dated May 17th. I will send you a carbon copy of the letter that I have written to him in reply to his letter to me so that you may have all the facts in the case.

After reading his letter over I believe it would be a wise suggestion for me to write something about the one bounce dribble and use the segmented court for girls' rules. If you would like me to do this then you could print a sheet as an insert with a bit of gum sticker and add it to the rule book. I think Mr. McElroy has something there.

Regarding his first suggestion, I do not believe that you will want to put out a mimeographed sheet showing the difference because you will remember that the very reason we wrote the rules was to make the rule book a part of the game. I believe that it would weaken your patent right and also the salability of the goal to say that there was very little difference between the two rules.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
