

book to pick-out these differences. I wasted a lot of time doing this before presenting this new and valuable addition to our program.

2nd You advertise the game as suitable for girls but list no different rules. Here in the East all girls teams play the special girls rules with the one bounce dribble and 2 or 3 division court. Most of the women physical education teachers are opposed to girls playing basketball under boys rules and it will hurt the introduction of your game unless girls rules are presented.
