

only those considered as the most promising were left to compete.

Twelve Atlanta players were named on the Northern squad. Tech High placed three to lead the list. However, the Monroe Aggies, G. I. A. A. champions, were awarded four places, thus supplying a nucleus for the North.

THE AGGIES will furnish Bill Yearout, Tex Williams, Walter Ruark and Newt Green. All were outstanding last season. Ruark and Yearout were on the All-G. I. A. A. first eleven and Williams was on the second team.

Dick Guthrie, Sam Lyons and Garland Childrey will represent Tech High. Other Atlanta members of the squad will be: Haslam Webb, center, Boys' High; Womack, guard, Decatur; Pierce, tackle, Decatur; Jack Marshall, end, North Fulton; Henry Monsees, end, G. M. A.; Frank Boykin, back, Boys' High; Larry Dodd, back, Russell, and Sonny Richardson, back, Georgia Military Academy.

The southern squad will offer
