

September 5, 1939.

Mr. Dwight Keith, Secretary,
Georgia Athletic Coaches Association,
751 Park Drive, N. E.,
Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Mr. Keith:

This will acknowledge your lovely letter of August 31. I want you to know how delighted I am at your complimentary words and it pleases me very much, I assure you. I know of no place that I have enjoyed working more than with you and your fine group in Atlanta. You did such a wonderful job as secretary that it seemed everything went off in splendid style. It was a real pleasure for me to be with you.

I assure you it will be an extreme pleasure to respond to your invitation when and if you see fit to ask me again.

I am sending in the near future a little gift for you and Mrs. Keith as a very happy reminder of the lovely time which I spent in your home. It was far too short, but under the situation it was the best that all of us could do. You have a lovely wife and two beautiful children. What more could any happy man desire!

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
