Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Mr. Keith:

Your two letters of September 25 and 28 were received in the mail this morning, and I am very happy to serve as one of your advisors on your very splendid magazine, "The Southern Coach and Athlete".

In my opinion, this is a very helpful service that your magazine is rendering to the coaching profession of the high schools and the colleges of the south. You may quote me in any manner that you wish. I give you this license knowing your evaluation of truth and veracity. It is a pleasure for me to serve you in any capacity.

And too, I want to thank you very much for sending me the list of coaches at the coaching school. This will enable me to keep well acquainted with the coaches who write me, and also to renew our acquaintance which was begun last August. This will be even more especially true since I am on your advisory board.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
