

V. TABLE TENNIS - PING PONG

1. Give dimension of regulation table, also color of paint used on its playing surface, as well as the color and width of line on the outside edges and down the center.
2. What height above the floor should the table rest?
3. What variations as to length and breadth are permitted for home tables?
4. What is the thickness of the table, and if you made one from what material would you make it, and where obtained?
5. Describe the net, color, and give height from the top of the table.
6. What material is used in the construction of ping pong balls?
7. Give dimensions of blade or racquet and state what materials of cover construction are used.
8. What method is used to determine choice of service or court?
9. What routine is established after each game as applied to server and receiver, and changing ends of table?
10. Regarding service, except when the score is 20-all, when does the server become the receiver, and vice versa?
11. When the score is 20-all, what then?
12. Give necessary rules as they apply to the server when he or she is serving.
13. What rules are enforced when server misses the ball entirely?
14. What is a good return?
15. May you strike the ball twice consecutively?
16. Give seven situations wherein a player loses a point by creating faults.
17. What is "let ball"?
18. May a player strike the ball after his opponent has served and then claim that he was not ready?
19. What is a fault?
20. What constitutes game and match? Exception?

VI. HORSESHOE PITCHING

1. Describe the court dimensions with pitcher's box and materials used as to clay and lumber.
2. Describe size, height above ground, and inclination of stakes toward opposite stake.
3. What is regulation distance between stakes? Distance for women and boys?
4. Give weight, length and width of horseshoes; also regulations concerning toe and heel calks; openings between calks.
5. What is game point in regulation game?
6. Match contest, how many games?
7. Which player is permitted first pitch, and also state procedure which player has choice after the first game has been won.
8. Who has the lead during the game?
9. State pitching rules regarding order of pitching, prohibition of contestant examining position of opponent's shoes before pitching, etc.
10. Where is the foul line of pitcher? State penalty.
11. State what is meant by foul shoe.
12. Describe a ringer.
13. Outline methods of scoring. Highest possible score?

VII. DECK TENNIS

1. Give dimensions of court with singles and doubles markings; also foul lines.
2. What is height of net?