Dear Mr. Sollars:

Thank you very much for your very good letter of the 4th instant. I certainly agree with you that since the tracks are closed for the winter, thousands of gamblers will be looking for new rackets, and college sports will be the next thing they will take over.

Yes, I remember you and your father, Charles Sollars, very well. Your father was a grand man, and I enjoyed visiting with him.

Again thanking you for your good wishes and your offer to help, I am

Very sincerely yours,
