

athlete. This would be as a protection against proselyting. If these laws were violated, sanctions would be enforced against coaches, athletic managers, players, or those individuals who broke the laws.