

January 21, 1939.

Mr. Louis E. Menze,
Iowa State College,
Ames, Iowa.

Dear Louie:

Well, we had a big mix up on our officials at Kansas State. Pierce Astle states that he was advised that the game started at 8 o'clock in your telegram. He showed me your letter of confirmation, but it didn't give the time of the game. Consequently, he got there 15 minutes late and we started with one official.

Don't you think, Louie, it would be a good thing on each official that you obtain, even substitute officials, to send them a complete list of the starting time of all the home games?

This was a tough game to handle single-handedly or doubly. I talked to Pierce after the game and this is the information that he gave me. Your wire said 8 o'clock and the letter had no time information.

Carroll and HasBrouck will be satisfactory to us for officials at Iowa State.

I thought I should advise you about the mix up at Manhattan.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Dear Doc:

The officials for the Kansas U.-Kansas State game at Manhattan are Volz and Astle. Astle was one of the officials whom you and Frank agreed on as an alternate for this game. However, before contacting him we contacted the following men: Peters, Carroll, House, Lance, Duvall and O'Sullivan, and had refusals from each one of these men.

For the Kansas U.-Iowa State game at Ames January 23 we have Carroll and HasBrouck. Carroll was one of the #1 selections. I sincerely hope that this is satisfactory.

Sincerely,

Dear Merl:

At the meeting of the Big Six basketball coaches, of which Louie Menze is secretary, we gave the starting time of all home games in our respective institutions.

We have always started our games at 7:30 and it would be a little difficult to start at 7:15, as much as we would like to accommodate you. I think for ten years now we have started our games at 7:30 and have made only one exception and that was on account of an unavoidable situation.

I think you can catch the 9:27 train for Kansas City, and if Louie would want to agree to shortening the time-outs to thirty seconds that would be agreeable with us. Then we can cut the between-halves to ten minutes if that will help. In other words, we will play the game with you and with Louie one hundred per cent, and I think it will be safe for you to count on catching the 9:27 train for Kansas City.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,

Dear Dr. Allen:

What time will you start our basketball game at Lawrence on February 20th. We will have to catch that 9:27 train for Kansas City. It will make a close connection but by starting game at 7:15 or 7:30 we should make it. In the past we have always played at Lawrence first and then at Norman but this year it is the other wayaround.

We could, of course, arrange for a bus from Lawrence to Kansas City as we leave Kansas City at 11:35 PM. At any rate, will you please inform me of the time of the game.

Dear Mr. Lance:

Thank you for your note of the 7th instant.

I am sure it was perfectly all right for you to wire, but I didn't understand the situation.

I am still accustomed to being forced to work under Kansas economic conditions. When I was Athletic Director I would not send a wire unless it was absolutely necessary.

We will be very happy to see you at the game Tuesday night. Anyone that was appointed by the secretary of the Big Six would, of course, be acceptable, and I did not feel that it was necessary for you to notify us. We accept all these appointments without equivocation.

I am sorry for the mistake in the wire to you. It was a telephone message and the mistake was outside of our office.

Louis Menze called me from Ames and advised me to write to him and to wire you confirming the date. I rather thought that a letter to you would get the word to you quickly enough but followed directions. If this is contrary to regulations, please deduct the price of the wire from my fee.

I shall be in Lawrence in plenty of time to start your game at 7:30 Tuesday January 10th.

I have received your wire this afternoon. Apparently you meant to say January 10, instead of February 10, as that is the date of our game with Kansas State here at Lawrence.

Unless Louis Menze advised you to do so, I see no necessity for sending a collect wire when a postage stamp would have done just as well.

A CALL TO K. U. CAGERS

JAYHAWKS WILL START SEASON AGAINST K-STATE DEC. 3.

Oklahoma Opposes Kansas and Manhattan Team Plays Iowa State in Initial Big Six Games January 7.

(By The Star's Own Service.)

LAWRENCE, KAS., Nov. 26.—Almost before football togs are packed away in mothballs, attention here is beginning to turn to the indoor season. The Big Six championship basketball players, coached by F. C. Allen, will make their 1938-39 debut Tuesday night when they meet the Kansas frosh cagers.

In a week, Big Six basketball for the 1938-39 season will get under way in earnest, Kansas and Kansas State officially opening their seasons December 3. The conference champions will entertain Missouri Teachers of Warrensburg here and Kansas State will go to Winfield to play Southwestern.

K. U. OPENS IN NORMAN.

The same two teams are in the start of conference play, Kansas meeting Oklahoma in Norman and Kansas State playing Iowa State in Ames, January 7.

Non-conference schedules this year show comparatively few games with teams on the Big Six team schedules last year. Kansas will invade new territory before Christmas, playing the University of Texas and Southern Methodist in Austin and Dallas. Oklahoma's schedule still is incomplete, with three or four games to be added, but the Sooners, also, will play Southern Methodist just at the end of the year.

Nebraska plans a trip to the Pacific coast, starting the night after Christmas in Berkeley, and also playing U. C. L. A. and Stanford. Missouri will go as far as the intermountain region for games with Denver, Colorado college and Wyoming. Iowa State, according to custom, has an all-Iowa non-conference schedule, and Kansas State will confine its play largely to the state.

K-STATE VS. M. U. FEB. 20.

The conference schedule provides no more than two games on any one date. Kansas and Kansas State have their two games ten days apart. Kansas State does not meet Missouri until February 20, with the return game February 25.

In addition to the ten conference games for each Big Six team, Kansas and Nebraska have ten non-conference games; Kansas State and Missouri eight each; Iowa State seven, and Oklahoma (scheduled to date) six. Following is the composite schedule with the scores of 1937-38 games. (Conference games are starred):

Dec. 3—Kansas vs. Warrensburg Teachers at Lawrence. Kansas State vs. Southwestern at Winfield.

Dec. 5—Iowa State vs. Cornell at Ames (26-28).

Dec. 9—Kansas vs. Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater.

Dec. 10—Kansas vs. Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater. *Kansas State vs. Doane college at Manhattan (36-32). *Nebraska vs. South Dakota at Lincoln (44-28). Iowa State vs. State Teachers at Cedar Falls (30-26; 35-28).

Dec. 12—Iowa State vs. Grinnell at Ames (28-26).

Dec. 14—Kansas State vs. Fort Hays State college at Hays.

Dec. 16—Kansas vs. Texas at Austin. Kansas State vs. Colorado State at Manhattan (40-50).

Dec. 17—Kansas vs. Texas at Austin. Kansas State vs. Colorado State at Manhattan. Iowa State vs. Drake at Ames. *Nebraska vs. Bradley Polytech at Lincoln (30-50). *Missouri vs. St. Louis U. at Columbia (35-33; 22-31).

Dec. 19—Kansas vs. Southern Methodists at Dallas.

Dec. 20—Kansas vs. Southern Methodists at Dallas. Kansas State vs. Emporia at Emporia. *Missouri vs. Wyoming at Columbia (29-40). Oklahoma vs. Arkansas at Norman.

Dec. 21—Missouri vs. St. Louis at St. Louis. *Nebraska vs. Minnesota at Lincoln (28-33). Oklahoma vs. Arkansas at Norman.

Dec. 22—*Missouri vs. Washington at St. Louis (47-46; 45-28).
