

January 9, 1939.

Mr. John F. Lance,
Pittsburg, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Lance:

Thank you for your note of the 7th instant.

I am sure it was perfectly all right for you to wire, but I didn't understand the situation.

I am still accustomed to being forced to work under Kansas economic conditions. When I was Athletic Director I would not send a wire unless it was absolutely necessary.

We will be very happy to see you at the game Tuesday night. Anyone that was appointed by the secretary of the Big Six would, of course, be acceptable, and I did not feel that it was necessary for you to notify us. We accept all these appointments without equivocation.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
